Contact: Tristia Bauman, Housing Attorney

The National Law Center on Homelessness & Poverty is monitoring violations of the Protecting Tenants at Foreclosure Act (PTFA) -- the federal law that says you have the right to remain in your home until the end of your lease, or to 90 days notice without a lease, when your building's owner is foreclosed on.

Please tell us your story by completing a quick, easy survey.

The results will be published in our upcoming report on tenants' rights across the country. Lend us your voice, and help us protect your rights!

If you have any questions, please contact Law Center Housing Attorney Tristia Bauman.

The Law Center's mission is to end and prevent homelessness by serving as the legal arm of the national movement. It works to achieve this using three main strategies: policy advocacy, public education, and impact litigation.
