POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Outreach Worker – Twin Falls Office

Idaho Legal Aid Services (ILAS) is seeking applicants for a part-time (24.4 hours per week) outreach worker position at its Twin Falls Office to provide outreach, education and support to agricultural workers and refugee communities in southcentral Idaho. The position requires development of a close understanding of the experiences and needs of Idaho's agricultural worker and refugee communities. The outreach worker will assist agricultural workers and refugees to prevent or identify legal problems and to access legal services. Applicants must be Spanish speaking with excellent interpersonal and organizational skills. They must also be able to read and write Spanish.

ILAS is a statewide nonprofit law firm that provides high quality advocacy, education and legal representation to low income and vulnerable Idahoans. We have served Idaho for more than 50 years and have offices in Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Nampa, Boise, Twin Falls, Pocatello, and Idaho Falls. A satellite office is located at the Nampa Family Justice Center. ILAS also has a Migrant Farmworker Law Unit, an Indian Law Unit, and three attorney-staffed legal advice lines. More information is available at www.idaholegalaid.org.

ILAS provides excellent opportunities for meaningful work and the professional growth of its employees. The person hired for the position must believe in ILAS's mission of providing equal access to justice. The entry-level annual salary for this position is $15,356+ DOE (24.4 hour week). Excellent benefits including life, health, dental, and disability insurance as well as retirement plan. Generous paid sick, vacation and holiday leave benefits. Relocation assistance available.

Email cover letter, resume and list of three references to erikjohnson@idaholegalaid.org. ILAS is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.
