

Veteran's Benefits

What Benefits Am I Entitled To As a Veteran?

If you are a veteran, you may be eligible for the following benefits: Disability Compensation for Veterans, Disability Pension, Dependents, and Other VA Benefits.

For more information regarding benefits available to Veteran's in Idaho, please visit Idaho's Division of Veteran's Services Benefits and Services webpage here: <https://www.veterans.idaho.gov/benefits>.

How Can I Receive Help to Get These Benefits?

For assistance obtaining veterans' benefits, please contact your local office of the Idaho Office of Veterans Advocacy by visiting their webpage here: <https://www.veterans.idaho.gov/advocacy>.

The Office of Veterans Advocacy is a full-service bureau that helps veterans, their family members and survivors pursue all federal and state benefits and entitlements on their behalf. Their staff has qualified benefits specialists trained to help veterans and families gain benefits they are entitled to under the law. They provide counseling and referral services to individuals and families, to provide veterans with current, accurate information on the entire range of issues associated with veterans' benefits and entitlements.

This service is available Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Messages may be left 24 hours a day.
