

Idaho Department of Health and Welfare Closes Nine Field Offices

Department of Health and Welfare Closes Nine Field Offices,

Lays Off 126 Workers Due to Budget Deficit

As part of a series of measures to address a personnel budget shortfall, the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare will close nine of its 29 offices statewide within the next two months and lay off 126 workers. The closures will cause hardship and inconvenience for many people, but resources are not available to continue the current level of office support...
