

Idaho Legal Aid Service's Coeur d'Alene Office Moving

Coeur d' Alene, Idaho - July 23, 2013

After more than 30 years on Sherman Avenue, Idaho Legal Aid Services is moving to new office space in Coeur d'Alene. Starting July 29, 2013, the new location will be 610 W. Hubbard Street, Suite 219. Telephone and fax numbers (208 667-9559 and 208 664-0931) will remain the same, but there will be some interruption during the move, which will occur the week of July 22.

We'll miss being part of the downtown core, but our new, ground floor location in the Harbor Plaza shopping center's upper level will provide much easier access for our clients, including door front parking," said managing attorney Alan Wasserman.

About Idaho Legal Aid Services and the Coeur d' Alene Office

Idaho Legal Aid Services, www.idaholegalaid.org, is a statewide private, non-profit law firm that serves eligible clients free of charge. The Coeur d'Alene office serves clients in Benewah, Bonner, Boundary, Kootenai and Shoshone counties with three attorneys and two support staff.

Client eligibility is based on household income and assets and the type of legal matter. Currently, the office focuses its work on representing victims of domestic violence, tenants, homeowners facing foreclosure, public benefit applicants/recipients, and senior citizens needing help with guardianships, powers of attorney, simple probates, and paying for long-term care. The office also has a contract to serve members of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe.
