

Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.

Advocacy. Education. Representation.

www.idaholegalaid.org

What Should I Know About Representing Myself In Court? ^[1]

When you represent yourself in court you are held to the same standards as an attorney. Your preparation, paperwork, and your conduct at all hearings must comply with court rules and orders. You should always talk to a lawyer about your legal issues before filing any legal paperwork. Even if you do not hire a lawyer to appear in your case, a lawyer can give you information about your rights. Read our full warning ^[2].

Printed: July 2, 2022

<http://www.idaholegalaid.org/node/2194/what-should-i-know-about-representing-myself-court>
©Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.