

Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.

Advocacy. Education. Representation.

www.idaholegalaid.org

Foreclosure Resources: Who to Call for Help ^[1]

For the basics on understanding foreclsoure, visit: <https://www.usa.gov/foreclosure> ^[2]

The Making Home Affordable (MHA) program provides help, including free counselors for advice and assistance with keeping you in your home or getting out safely. Visit the MHA website ^[3] to learn what options you have and what you need to prepare. MHA has a hotline you can call anytime: 1-888-995-HOPE (tel:18889954673) or TTY 1-877-304-9709.

You can also find a foreclosure avoidance counselor in your area ^[4].

Your state's housing agency ^[5] might have a foreclosure avoidance program as well.

If you have an FHA loan ^[6], call the FHA National Servicing Center at 1-877-622-8525.

Printed: May 24, 2022

<http://www.idaholegalaid.org/node/2783/foreclosure-resources-who-call-help>

©Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.