

Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.
208-345-0106 (Boise Service office)
www.idaholegalaid.org

Staff has been trained to guide victims of identity theft. When a victim calls any of Idaho Legal Aid Services' offices, they will be told steps they can take to solve their problem and will be referred to the FTC's website for further information and to access the identity theft affidavit. Idaho Legal Aid Services does not currently have funding to represent victims of identity theft unless the victim falls under one of our grants that would qualify the client for extended services (e.g., low-income senior or low-income domestic violence victim).

Idaho State Tax Commission

www.tax.idaho.gov

Staff can provide copies of IRS Victims Assistance brochures, Boise Police Department Identity Theft brochures, and the link to IRS form 14039. Commission staff can lock specific Idaho tax accounts to force validation of all returns filed for that Social Security number to prevent filing of false returns. Cannot disclose individual's names or tax information to law enforcement; this information has to be requested by the individual who could then provide it to law enforcement. If the name on a filed tax return or W2 is different, the information on those documents cannot be disclosed, even to the proper owner of the Social Security number (the identity theft victim). Victims can request copies of all documents showing BOTH their name and SSN.

RESOURCE AND REFERRAL GUIDE

Idaho Coalition Against Identity Theft seeks to provide a coordinated community response to better assist victims of identity theft in our state.

WHAT VICTIMS CAN DO

Place a Fraud Alert on your credit reports by contacting one of the credit reporting agencies ("CRA's") listed on the back of this brochure. Request your free credit reports.

Call all companies where an account has been misused or opened fraudulently. Close or flag as necessary. Follow up in writing, enclosing an Affidavit. Call your financial institution to review your accounts for suspicious activity.

Report to the Federal Trade Commission. File a complaint online at www.ftc.gov. Enclose a copy of the complaint, called an 'FTC Affidavit,' with your letters to companies and CRAs. Provide a copy to the police if you file a police report.

File a report with Police. Request a police report even if they are unable to investigate further. Ask police to attach your FTC Affidavit to the report. To fix mistakes on your credit report, send a copy of the report to each CRA and any company that provided the inaccurate information.

Better Business Bureau Snake River Region 1-800-218-1001

<http://snake-river.bbb.org/>
BBB staff can provide reference materials such as FTC pamphlets, general information and guidance on what to do if ID theft happens to you. The BBB conducts two free shred events every year to help consumers protect their personal information from ID thieves. BBB can do speaking engagements on Identity Theft for businesses and consumers as part of their ongoing outreach.

Idaho Attorney General's Office Consumer Protection Division 208-334-2424 www.ag.idaho.gov

AG's office can answer basic consumer questions about Idaho's identity theft laws and direct consumers to other resources, such as the FTC or law enforcement agencies. The consumer protection division publishes the Identity Theft Manual, available at www.ag.idaho.gov. The Division's informal dispute resolution service assists in some situations with resolving identity theft-related disputes involving consumer reporting agencies or creditors. The AG's office cannot give legal advice or representation to individual consumers; it's primary service to the public concerning identity theft is education.

Idaho Department of Finance 208-332-8000 finance.idaho.gov

Idaho Department of Finance (DOF) staff provide guidance and referrals to citizens who may be victims of ID theft and information on how to protect one's self from ID theft. DOF staff can provide speakers to groups that are interested in booking presentations on ID theft or other financial services related topics. DOF may provide assistance when the ID theft involves a DOF licensee, such as regulated lenders, collection agencies, escrow agencies, mortgage brokers/lenders/loan originators, state-chartered banks and credit unions, credit counselors, debt settlement agencies, securities brokers/agents, money services businesses, and credit repair organizations (but not federally-chartered financial institutions).

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) IRS Identity Theft Hotline 1-800-908-4490 Taxpayer Advocate: 1-877-777-4778 www.irs.gov

Victims of identity theft are encouraged to contact the IRS Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 1-800-908-4490. The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assists with resolving tax problems when normal IRS channels are not working for a consumer.

United States Attorney's Office for the District of Idaho www.justice.gov/usao/id/

The United States Attorney's Office (USAO) provides extensive services to individuals identified as victims in a case that the USAO is prosecuting, including: notification of court proceedings, notification of victims' rights, victim impact statements, referrals, and employer/creditor notification upon request. If an individual who is not an identified victim calls seeking information, they are provided limited information and appropriate referrals.
